

COSMOPROF ASIA SHOW, HONG KONG, NOVEMBER 2010

Event Overview

Cosmoprof is recognised as the premier tradeshow for the beauty, health and well-being sectors in Asia and this year marks its 15th anniversary. It will be held from 10-12 Nov in Hong Kong.

The Australian Pavilion at Cosmoprof will showcase the following sectors: Perfumes, Cosmetics and Toiletries, Beauty Salon and Wellbeing, Hair Care, Natural Health and Raw Materials and Contract Manufacturing.

Promotion Overview

AMAG has offered to support its licensees participating in the show with a financial assistance package.

For more information, please contact Ranjit K Singh, Export Manager, on tel: 03 9686 1500 or email:

ranjit.singh@australianmade.com

ABOUT THE AUSTRALIAN MADE, AUSTRALIAN GROWN LOGO

The AMAG logo is a registered certification trade mark used to assist consumers identify Australian made and grown products. The logo is recognised by 94% of Australian consumers and trusted over any other country of origin identifier for Australia by 85%. It can be found on more than 10,000 locally made or grown products that are sold here and around the world.

The organisation is not-for-profit and raises awareness of genuine Australian goods by using the iconic country of origin logo. The AMAG logo was introduced in 1986 by the Australian Government.